

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS AND INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAMS

AFRICAN STUDIES

Program Director: James S. Wunsch
Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 430A

Program Description: African Studies is an interdisciplinary program drawing from faculty in the departments of History, English, Sociology and Anthropology, Political Science and International Relations and Theology. It attempts to provide students with factual and theoretical material necessary to understand the issues facing contemporary Africa through courses approaching Africa from humanistic, ethnographic, historical, institutional, and policy-oriented perspectives. The program also offers films, social events, symposia and visiting lecturers to go beyond course offerings.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at <http://puffin.creighton.edu/afs>. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University's website for Bulletin changes at <http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar>.

PROGRAM IN AFRICAN STUDIES

AFRICAN STUDIES MINOR

Program Description: The African Studies minor offers students an overview of historical, literary, political and ethnographic material about Africa. The African Studies minor empowers all students to be better citizens and members of increasingly global social and professional communities. Students with this background will be able to understand the African continent and its people and will, hence, become more culturally aware medical practitioners, immigration lawyers, and international business negotiators.
