

The Harper Center for Student Life and Learning is devoted to meeting the needs of Creighton University student, faculty, and staff by:

- Increasing meeting space on campus
- Bringing Creighton events back to campus while fostering new events from the community
- Permitting collaboration between many departments on campus to provide centralized services to students
- Combining the academic process with that of non academic services of student life
- Allowing the Skutt Student Center to focus more on student use of facility